SEVENTY-SECOND YEAR

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In summing up the year's work, I am sure we may congratulate ourselves upon very definite progress along the lines suggested by our slogan—"Comradeship—Citizenship—Character."

In the conduct of the many entertainments—in social gatherings of the various groups and clubs, centering around their own club's weekly or monthly meetings, and perhaps emphasized more definitely by the frequent gatherings in the Hostess Room under the auspices of the efficient Committee of Hostesses, there has been promising evidence of progress from acquaintance and friendship up to real comradeship.

Again in the carrying on of these many pleasant programs, the complete co-operation of members has been always in mind, the doing by every one—doing good as well as getting good—a recognition of the full meaning of citizenship.

This citizenship, this sensing of accomplishment and the pleasure and friendship coming from true co-operation of all, must have its value in indicating clearly to the members a better comprehension of a broader citizenship, of the responsibility to the City—the State—and the Nation, and finally the development of such comradeship and citizenship can but mean the building of character.

A spirit of genuine good-fellowship—comradeship—brotherhood is uniformly recognized as THE UNION'S dominating feature. This splendid quality of our membership indicates that there is necessary only perfection of organization—development of team play, of citizenship, to make possible achievement of any goal toward which our efforts may be turned.

Along with a word of cordial appreciation and approval of the efforts generously made by the Members and the Employed Staff during the past year, your President urges renewed devotion to our most suggestive and comprehensive slogan which will ensure fulfillment of THE UNION'S purposes so tersely defined in the Act of Incorporation by the simple phrase "moral and Christian improvement."

GENERAL REPORT OF BOARD OF GOVERNMENT

In 1851 The Biblical Literature Society was conceived and organized by a group of young men for the commendable purpose suggested by the name chosen for the Society.

In 1852, stimulated by the organization of the Young Men's Christian Association and because religious convictions prevented them from co-operating with that organization, these young men incorporated the Boston Young Men's Christian Union.

THE UNION'S purpose as indicated in its charter, "moral and Christian improvement," has been the background on which its work and its activities have been framed.

An early report reads:

"It is in vain that we have sumptuously furnished our rooms, or bountifully supplied our library, or filled our lecture rooms with crowded audiences, if we have not learned to be ACTIVE in works of CHRISTIAN DUTY. If we would BE ANYTHING we must DO SOMETHING."

In the spirit of this comment, with the more modern phrasing "learning through doing," the purpose, "moral and Christian improvement," becomes the more vital, not only as advancing the material interests of THE UNION, but more especially in its strengthening of the morals and character of our individual members.

In these terms, our slogan—"Comradeship—Citizenship—Character"—takes on stronger meaning, and inspires to increased endeavor. All this is emphasized by the increasing measure in which members are showing interest in the every-day work of THE UNION through actual participation in carrying out existing programs and in undertaking responsibility for new activities.

We have frequently spoken of THE UNION as a Human Laboratory where along with the expression of brotherhood and comradeship go hand in hand all sorts of experiments in human relationships—co-operation in social improvement programs where the learning-through-doing idea provides every possible opportunity for gaining knowledge and experience in Democracy and Citizenship. Accomplishment in response to repeated requests for development in this line is such that your Board of Government urges renewed effort in the year to come.

In the reports of committees which follow are recorded detailed accounts of manifold doings that, the Board is confident, justify its statement of pleasing accomplishment.

Our trumpet has not been loudly blown to acclaim the idea, but we are confident that the work of the year, tested by the standards laid down by our forebears "that to be anything we must do something," justifies our claim to prominence as an agency for high-type "Americanization" and "Good Citizenship."

FINANCE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

W. Rodman Peabody, Chairman
William H. Brown

Charles L. Burrill
Ernest G. Adams

In spite of increased revenue resulting from generous additions to the Permanent Fund through legacies, extension of activities has occasioned expense for the year somewhat in excess of revenue. This deficit has been met by a relatively small advance from principal approved by the Trustees.

The Committee is confident that the story of the year's work recorded in the accompanying reports of operating committees, supplemented by inquiry and investigation of THE UNION'S purposes and plans, will ensure increased financial giving and support which will not only make unnecessary further demands on endowment, but will also provide revenue needed for desirable further extension of effort.

Members and friends are urged to spread the story of accomplishment and needs. We are confident that if informed of THE UNION'S work and requirements, many interested in such worthwhile enterprises will gladly add THE UNION to their contributing lists.

This appeal should not be made without record, heartily written, of a most cordial appreciation of the continued support of many generous contributors. Particular appreciation should be expressed for the unsolicited donations for the New Building.

PERMANENT FUND

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES

William L. Richardson, Chairman; Edwin L. Sprague, Secretary;
Robert Winsor, Treasurer; *James A. Lowell; George H. Ellis, Isaac Sprague

Legacies and gifts as received are placed in the hands of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund for investment. The Trustees also hold title to all real estate. By agreement with the Board of Directors, unrestricted gifts, as well as Endowment Funds restricted to use of income, are turned over to the Trustees and no portion of the unrestricted principal may be expended without their assent. Stability of income and permanency of policy are thus assured.

The following additions to the Permanent Fund, received during the year, are recorded with full appreciation:

For General Purposes:

Charles Tidd Baker Fund	$10,000.00
(one-half income only to be used)
Seth A. Fowle	1,000.00
H. A. Willis (additional) (previously acknowledged $26,387.77) . .	19.00
Walter Hunnewell	10,000.00
Arthur F. Estabrook (part payment)	18,750.00

For Special Purposes:

Caroline F. Sanborn	1,000.00
(Country Week—part payment)
Charles Wells Cook Fund for Library and Gymnasium	400.00
Charles Edward Cook Fund	400.00
New Building—"A Friend" (identity to be disclosed later)	25,000.00
	$66,569.00

The Trustees record with deep regret the resignation of James A. Lowell, on account of his appointment as Justice of the United States District Court. THE UNION has been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Isaac Sprague as Mr. Lowell's successor in this important post.

The steady and substantial additions to THE UNION'S Permanent Fund are a source of gratification to this Board, indicating, as it is believed they do indicate, approval of program and confidence in those charged with THE UNION'S administration. Extension of Endowment is also valuable in that it ensures the permanency of desirable activities whose continuation might not always otherwise be possible. Added value is given to the Endowment when in the form of a Memorial Fund, associating with the Institution or some special activity the name of an interested worker or friend.

Contributions to the General Fund, or to the Special Building Fund, may be sent to Frank L. Locke, President, 48 Boylston Street, or to Robert Winsor, Treasurer Permanent Fund, care of Kidder, Peabody & Co., 115 Devonshire Street, Boston.

ROOMS

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ROOMS

William H. Brown, Chairman. Charles Jackson

There has been a more generous use of the halls and rooms both by our own members and by outside parties during the year. Frequently we have been puzzled to provide suitable accommodations, and not infrequently lively work has been necessary to clear up at the close of one program to make ready for another in the same room.

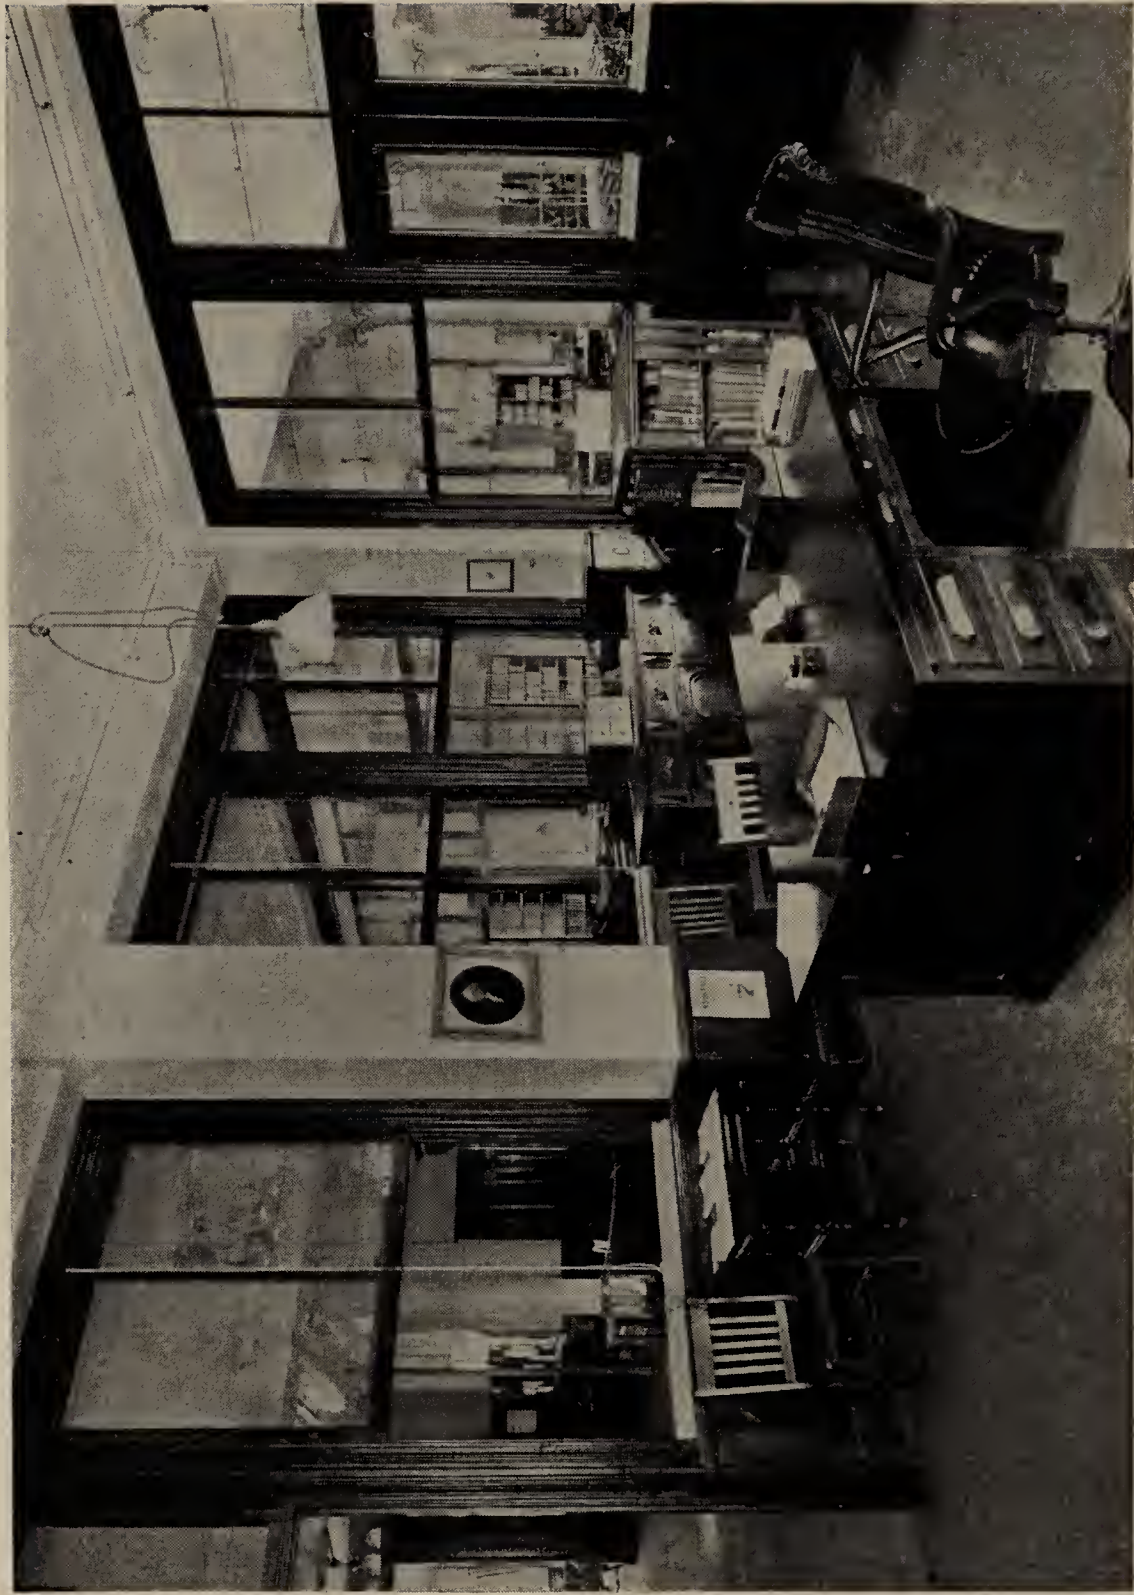

The Union Hall, our largest auditorium, has been the scene of many activities, social and educational.

Every week during the season the YD Band has held its rehearsals here. The Massachusetts Safety Council in co-operation with THE UNION gave a series of ten lectures on "Industrial Safety." The Camera Club has made use of it for Special Meetings with Lectures and a two weeks' exhibition of its photographic work.

Because of its special facilities, the hall has been in demand by many organizations for dramatic and musical programs.

A Group of Boy Scouts has been given regular accommodations for their meetings in the Norcross Hall. As a practical demonstration of good Citizenship arrangement has been made for payment for the use of the hall through bits of service rendered for THE UNION by the Scouts, from time to time.

Provision has been made in this hall for the interesting game of Badminton at such time as the hall has not been used for other purposes. This has been enjoyed by a considerable number of the General Membership as well as by the Young Men of the Gymnasium.

The Reception Room has been given over as usual for the regular weekly meetings of the Mendelssohn Singers, the Orchestral Club and the Park Street Club.

For the more satisfactory accommodation of the "British Apprentice Club," Cadets from British ships temporarily in the harbor, and under the general direction of Miss Mabel I. Otis, co-operating with THE UNION, the Committee Room, off the Reception Room, was repainted and refurnished.

The Game Room, in the Library Lobby, has been the center of interest and activity. Pool and Billiards have continued in popularity. The activities of the Boylston Chess Club have stimulated the interest in Chess, and an increasing attention to Checker-playing has resulted in the formation of a Union Checker Club. All these activities have made of this room indeed a lively spot.

The experiment of permitting smoking in this room has, on the whole, proved satisfactory. Those to whom smoking is objectionable have, in the main, used the accommodations provided for Checkers and Chess in the Main Office Lobby, and the readers to whom smoking is objectionable have found no special inconvenience in making use of the Silence Room as a reading room, while, on the other hand, the readers who enjoy smoking while reading have been satisfactorily accommodated by extra table and chairs provided in the Game Room.

Minor changes have been made in the accommodations provided for the Camera Club, in the cost of which, in democratic fashion, the Club has assumed a share.

Having in mind the projected new building, no unusual changes have been made.

It is the earnest hope of the Committee, shared I am sure by all, that conditions in the financial and construction fields which have seemed to trustees and directors to caution delay, will shortly improve sufficiently to make possible the realization of our long-looked-for new home.

DAVID T. HARDING, for thirty-one years the faithful and efficient carpenter at THE UNION, passed away at his residence at Greenwood, Massachusetts, Tuesday, January 23, 1923, after a long illness. He was born at Carlton, New Brunswick, on July 18, 1840, and entered the service of THE UNION in February, 1892.

The management and the membership of THE UNION here desire to express their sincere appreciation of Mr. Harding's long and faithful service, and his kindly general interest in THE UNION and its members. He was a member of Wyoming Lodge, A. F. &

A. M. He leaves a widow, and one daughter, Miss Charlotte Harding.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, January 25, at three o'clock, at his residence.

Changes in the office staff have occurred only in the minor positions where naturally more or less rotations occur from year to year. The Committee wishes to record its appreciation of the faithful and painstaking work of the members of the official family and in this appreciation is confident that it conveys also a word of appreciation from the membership at large.

MEMBERS

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMBERS

Herbert D. Heathfield, Chairman. Robert Winsor, Jr.

Comradeship—Citizenship—Character—are the magic words which THE UNION has inscribed upon its banner.

One of the Boston papers in commenting upon the "Fire-Gong Dinner" said: "The spirit of the B. Y. M. C. UNION has always been a thing of wonder to many organizations which find it impossible to develop the friendly camaraderie which exists in this Boylston Street institution." This illustrates the first word of our slogan,—"Comradeship."

The All-Union Minstrel Show, given in Jordan Hall recently, at which eighty-two members of THE UNION entertained about a thousand persons in the Hall and 150,000 radio fans, illustrates "Citizenship."

These, together with the various activities of the several clubs and classes in which the members are participating, develop—"Character."

We are gradually growing in numbers as well as increasing in activities. The gain of ninety-six this year, although small, is encouraging, and we feel assured that with the co-operation of our large and active membership, THE UNION will push forward steadily, a mighty army of young men bearing aloft its banner, with the motto Comradeship—Citizenship—Character.

We submit the following statistics of membership for year ending March 31, 1923:

CLUBS

The Clubs of THE UNION bear to it a relation not unlike that of Commonwealths in the greater Union. Each has its own government in its own affairs and each owes allegiance to the entire brotherhood. Here we see THE UNION member at his happiest, merging himself in the activity best suited to him.

That all may understand the club activities of THE UNION we give a list of clubs, alphabetically arranged, with a brief statement of the functions of each.

Boylston Chess Club—A chess players' organization developing individual playing and participating in contests with other clubs.

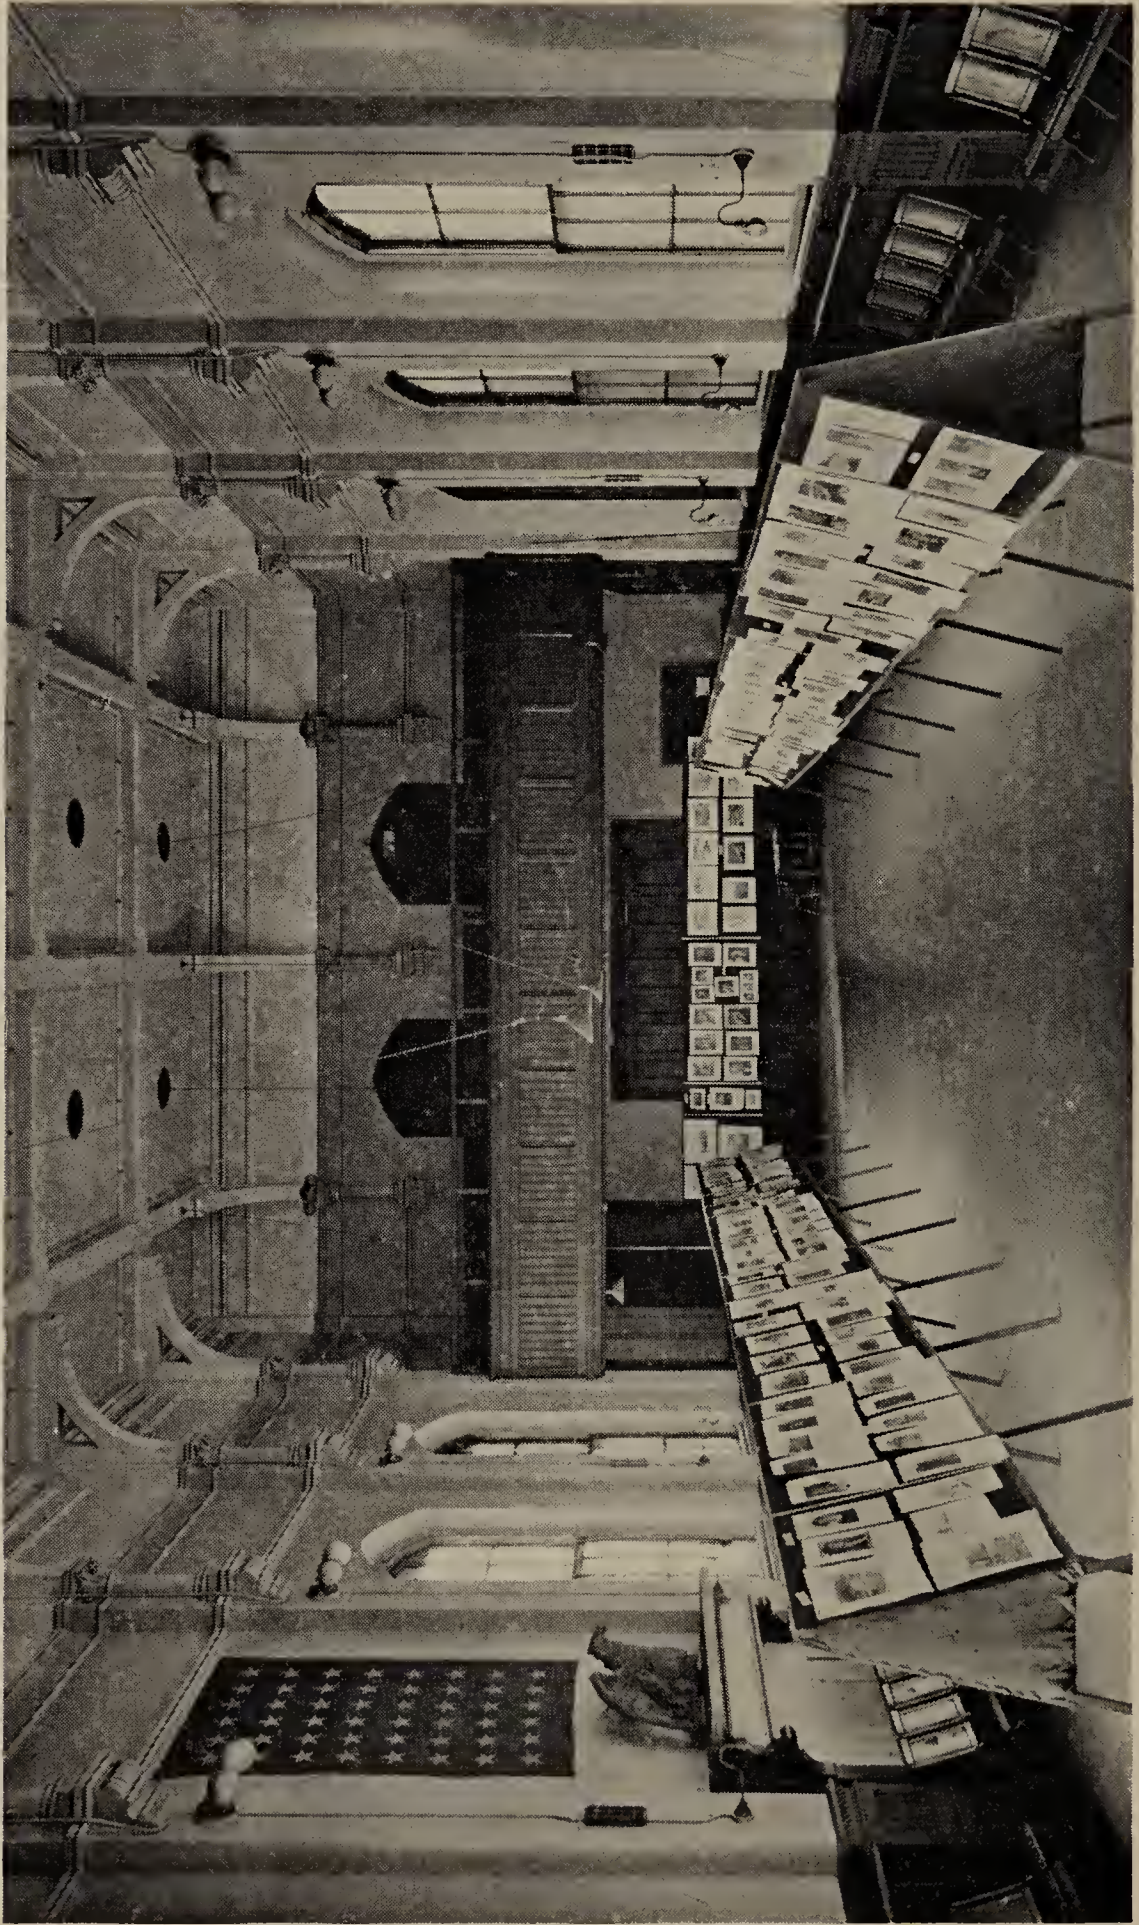

Hand-ball Players—A Gymnasium Club interested in this game.

Mendelssohn Singers—A men's choral club rehearsing weekly under competent direction and giving concerts not only in THE UNION, but throughout Greater Boston.

Orchestral Club—A high-class musical society forming a competent orchestral organization. Its concerts of music of the better class are of a nature to appeal to the most fastidious.

Park Street Club—A notable organization of many years' standing, organized for the consideration of public questions and now taking a prominent part in the affairs of THE UNION.

Union Camera Club—An organization of two hundred members developing the art of photography. Recognized all over the country as an important factor in photographic progress.

The Union Hall arranged for Camera Club Exhibition

Union Checker Club—Seventy members of THE UNION who have a common interest in the game of checkers and organized to improve themselves and develop skill by practice and by contests with other clubs.

Wrestling Club—A Gymnasium Club formed from members who especially enjoy this sport.

YD Band—A full military band of Yankee Division Veterans, all members of THE UNION. It is well known from its frequent public appearances.

EDUCATION

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Charles L. Burrill, Chairman. Edward A. Church

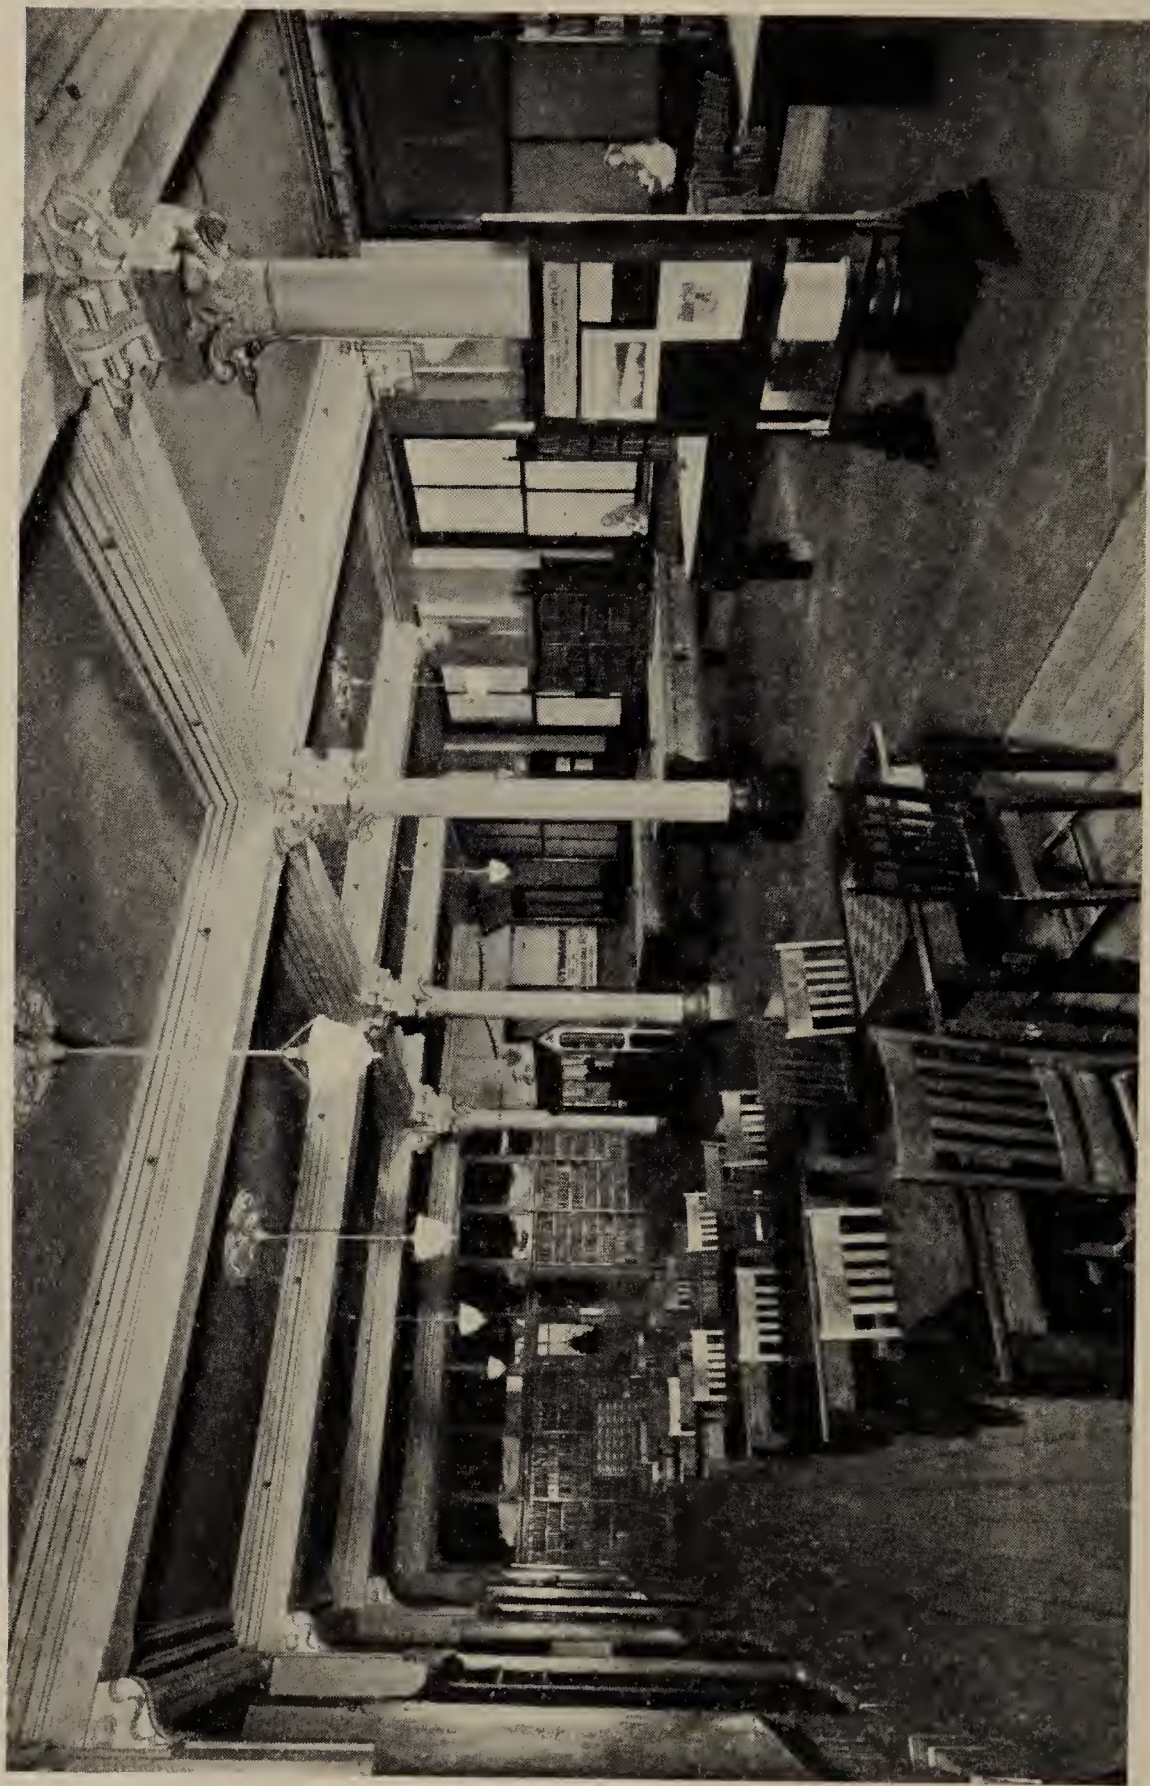

EVENING CLASSES

For fifty-four years THE UNION has provided educational advantages for young men. THE UNION was the first institution in Boston to offer educational instruction to young people in their spare time. During all these years, THE UNION has sought to cultivate the highest and best kinds of personal relations between teachers and students, as a means of securing the largest educational result and for the development of the right character, as an essential part of real education.

THE UNION Classes are intended for those who lack time and opportunity for more extended study. The charges for attending them are made as low as possible, while still consistent with good and proper management. They are strictly on a co-operative plan, whereby total fees and receipts are planned to offset expenditures, leaving no margin for profit. These aims and ideals commended themselves to thinking men and won the respect and confidence of the students. As a result, THE UNION Evening Classes have had fifty-four successful seasons.

FIFTY-FOURTH SEASON

During this season, there were two terms of classes in fundamental subjects and several special courses were also successfully conducted. The fundamental subjects included:

THE SALES ROUND TABLE

The purpose of the Sales Round Table was to provide an opportunity for young men actually engaged in selling to participate in the discussion of sales subjects under the leadership of practical sales executives.

Opportunity to secure the points of view of different sales executives was offered. The problems of wholesale selling were emphasized. Membership was restricted to fifty persons actually engaged in selling.

The scope of the lectures and discussions extended beyond the A B C of Salesmanship and was aimed to meet the needs of men who find sales problems in their own experience.

One novel feature of the Sales Round Table was the dinner served to members of the class at their own expense, previous to each meeting. These dinners brought the men together for a short social hour, thus breaking up the formality of the usual lecture and making the Sales Round Table a series of open sales discussions.

The success of this series of discussions was largely due to the advice and co-operation of Mr. W. Stanwood Field of Farley

Harvey & Co. His suggestions were especially helpful because of his many years' experience in school work in the city of Boston.

THE OFFICE BOYS' TRAINING TABLE

For the purpose of instructing the office boys and junior clerks employed by THE UNION a course of ten lectures was conducted by the executive force in every-day business methods, as applied to the management of THE UNION and its activities: History and Organization, Every-day Business Systems, Office Routine, Office Machines, Telephone, The Directory, Trip to Beach Telephone Exchange, Your Job and How to Keep Busy when there is Nothing to Do. At the close of this series of lectures the boys were given a final examination, the results of which showed that the course had been quite successful in placing before them some of the fundamentals of every-day business methods and had caused them to take more interest in their work.

The Committee on Education is very grateful to the ladies of the Hostess Room for their most willing co-operation in preparing the dinners for the classes and for the cordial reception which was extended to both members of the instructing staff and student body.

The Advisory Committee has been especially active and interested in the development of these Evening Classes. The success of the classes during this our fifty-fourth season has been largely due to the thought and energy so generously contributed by these men.

LIBRARY

Richard Ray, Jr., Librarian

A library is an important feature in the education of young men. It supplements and aids the work of the Educational Classes and encourages home study and self-improvement. It is also a form of recreation. Its stories of romance, travel, history and biography give to many readers pleasure and information.

The attendance in the Silence Room (which is today the real reading room) has increased over the previous year. The books are used a great deal, especially in the room, as is evidenced by the need of rebinding, as well as the attendance. Newspapers from Boston, New York, Springfield, Mass., Chicago, Ill., and Washington, D.C., are upon the newspaper files, arrive promptly and are much consulted. The thirty-five weekly and fifty-four monthly magazines are also popular.

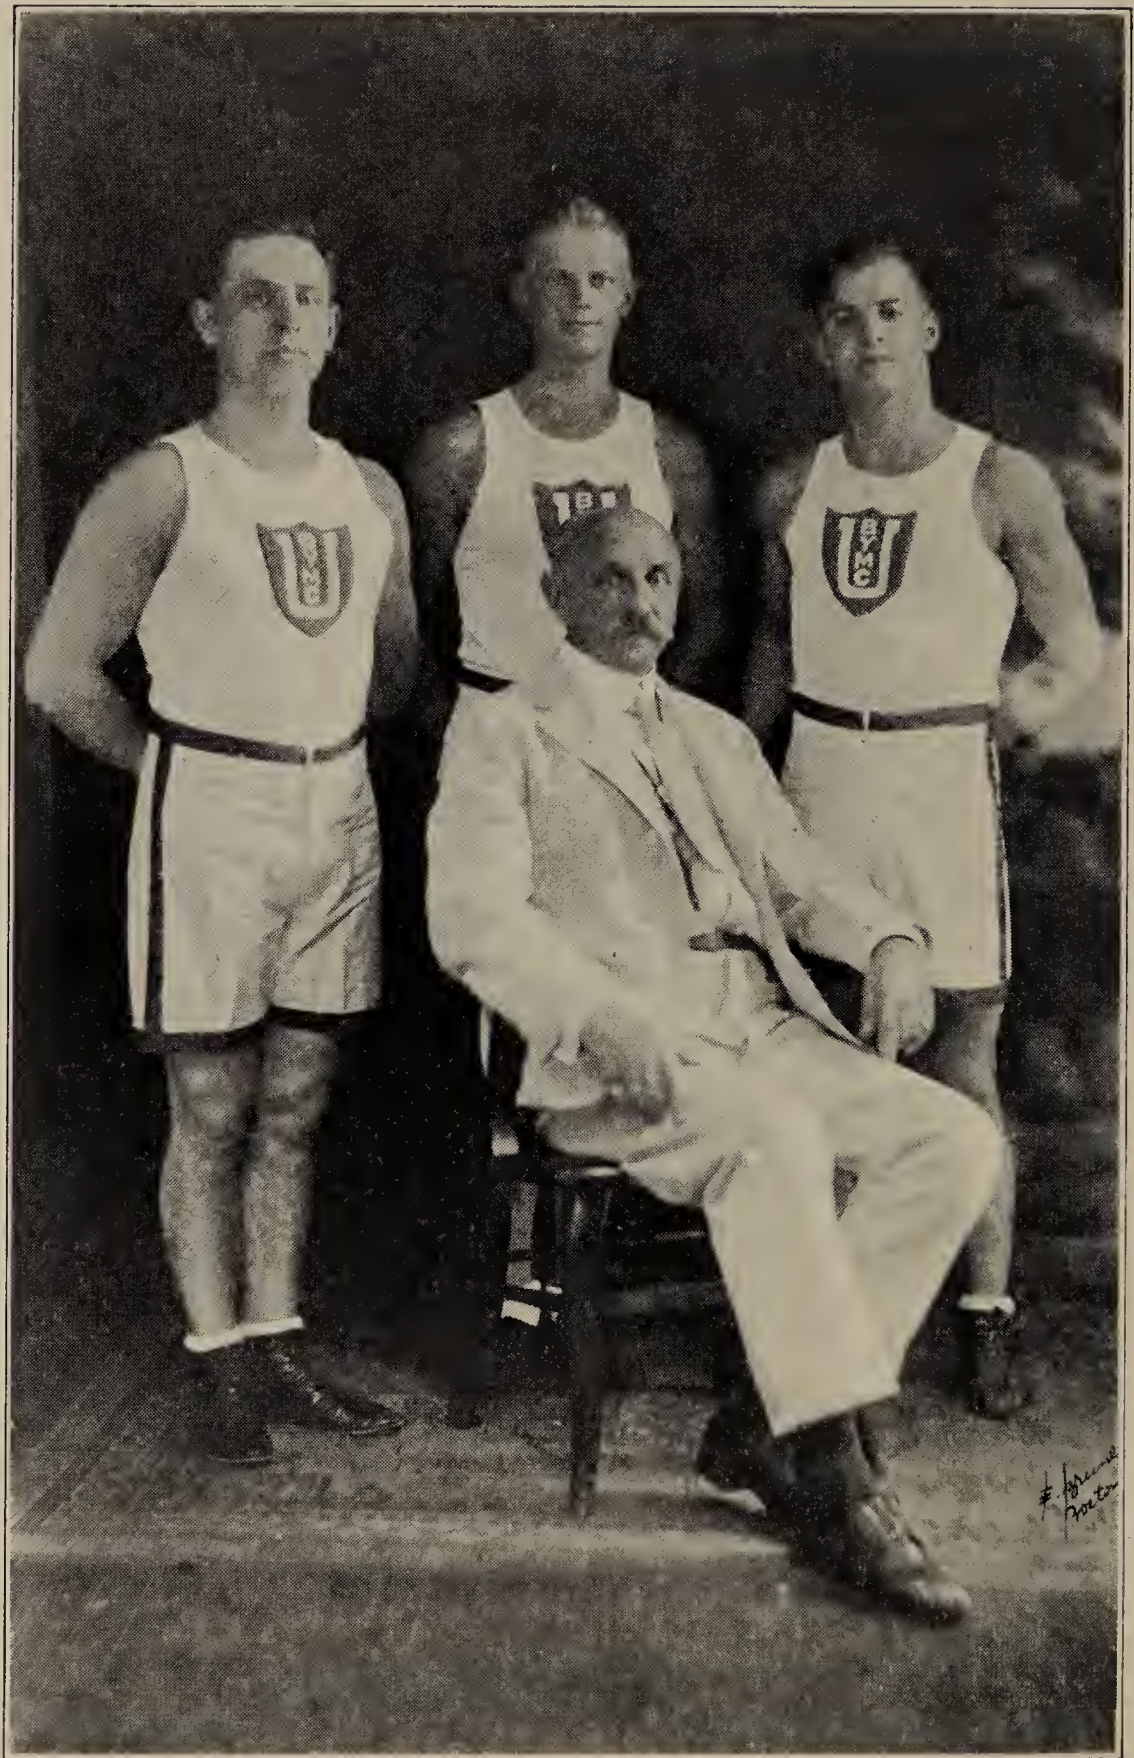

During the season publicity was given to the new books added to the Library by lists published in THE UNION Bulletin, posted upon the Bulletin Boards, and in other ways. Two important sets were added, i.e., Outline of Science by Thomson, in four volumes, and Outline of History by Wells, in two volumes,—these in addition to one hundred and forty others which were purchased and placed in circulation.

The system of open shelves still continues in force and is appreciated by all. The Literary Editor of the Boston Transcript in describing his experiences in our Library said, in an article contributed by him to THE UNION Bulletin: "The books were all there on open shelves, and I could make a journey among them which was to me more fascinating than a trip around the world. I passed many an hour there picking and choosing my books with no slip to fill out and no tedious waiting before my eager desires for reading were satisfied."

Another writer of the Transcript, also writing for the Bulletin, said: "I wonder how many of THE UNION pass through the Library without giving it a thought except as a game room or a passageway. Nowhere in the world is there a worth-while collection of books that can be used with less restraint."

PHYSICAL CULTURE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE

Walter H. Trumbull, Jr., Chairman. William T. Reid, Jr.

The Gymnasium during the past year has been taxed to its utmost to meet the demands of its increasing membership. On Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays we often have an attendance of over eight hundred men, and on Saturdays, in addition to the usual number attending for regular exercise, a considerable number of men take advantage of the bathroom facilities, increasing the attendance to considerably over one thousand. Every available space has been taken for lockers, and all are eagerly waiting for the New Building, when each member thinks he can bring at least one new man, doubling the membership.

The Wrestling Club held its Annual Championship meet before a very large audience. The Club secured two first prizes in the New England Wrestling Championship, and two members went to compete in the National Championship.

The usual Gymnasium Exhibition was notable for the splendid contributions of special work by various individual members and particularly for the work of the classes in Calisthenics and Gymnastic Dancing. Lack of space and size of the list of generous contributors to the exhibition prevent formal recognition of their excellent work. The demands upon the men for preparation and rehearsals, as well as for the time given to the program itself, gave added evidence of true UNION spirit. The work of this exhibition gave full evidence of the skillful and painstaking leadership and instruction of Professor Hebbert and his enthusiastic and loyal staff of assistants.

Hand-ball has had an unusually successful year, our Members winning most of the matches with other clubs. At the New York Hand-Ball Contest held at Manhattan Beach, three of our Members were selected to represent Boston.

The Boxing Class for Business Men carried on under the supervision of four Instructors has been very popular.

The Saturday Morning Boys' Class has been large and enthusiastic.

The Class in Physical Civil Service has maintained its usual high efficiency, Mr. Schneider's pupils again securing the first places in the Police and Fire Department tests.

Professor Hebbert and his assistants have been in much demand as judges in the Gymnastic Meets between the various colleges. Dartmouth, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Harvard had coaches from THE UNION Gymnasium.

The nine classes each day have been very largely attended; the 5.15 P.M. class often having an attendance of over 120.

Tuesday and Thursday evenings have been devoted to Advanced Calisthenics and Gymnastic Dancing. There has been a large and enthusiastic attendance.

Medical Gymnastics and corrective work have been given on Tuesdays and Thursdays—Professor Hebbert having the able assistance of Messrs. Fox and White in this special work.

The Massage Department has continued in charge of Victor Nyquist.

The total attendance in the Gymnasium for the year was 180,971; attendance in the Gymnasium Classes was 43,757, and in the Hand-ball Court, 26,136.

character of performance, both by individuals and by the various clubs, teams and classes, alike on the floor, in contests and in special exhibitions, testify to the ability, skill and enthusiastic leadership of Professor Hebbert and his staff.

Appreciation of the efforts of these leaders has been shown in generous measure at the close of classes and on special occasions, but the Committee is glad to record on its own behalf and on behalf of the members this formal word of appreciation.

SOCIAL SERVICE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE

Edward A. Church, Chairman. Richard Harte

Social Service is a term of such deep significance and broad application that it covers, virtually, all the activities of the Christian Union, since through all its efforts to benefit its individual members runs an abiding purpose to be of genuine helpfulness in the community.

This, however, is an age of specialization, and we specialize as follows, with experts operating in each department:

The Country Week comes first in importance, and it has been spending money and saving children for forty-eight years, so that its objects and its history are pretty well known in our town. Many of our "grown-ups" of today look back gratefully to the happy vacations which their childhood knew through this organization, and an ever increasing number of little ones is pleading for its privileges. Last year two thousand three hundred and ninety six persons (mostly children) had "the time of their lives" in homes and camps along the countryside, and this year we want to send even more. Send for our special report and see why.

Rides for Invalids is another happy undertaking in our work, and for more than forty years it has given outings to the sick and weary, to tired mothers and little children and to the aged and chronic invalid. It has also done a helpful service in hospital connections, and it operates through all the year, though of course summer is its busiest season. Here is its record for the past year: Persons given carriage rides, 537; steamboat tickets distributed, 300; electric-car tickets distributed, 7,050. Total of 7,887.

“Country Week”

At the Farm

Christmas Festival: It had its fiftieth celebration in THE UNION Hall on Saturday afternoon, December 16, and more than six hundred children were present. They were cordially welcomed by President Locke, and they responded with some lusty singing, ably assisted by the Norfolk House Centre Songsters. There was cake and ice-cream a-plenty, moving pictures, and a box of good things carefully selected for personal needs for each child to carry home. Mr. John L. Dyer was the Santa Claus, and he was a dandy.

The invalids in our membership are ministered to, the impoverished and unfortunate are given sympathetic attention, and those seeking such accommodation find our Board and Lodging lists of reliable service.

The Employment Bureau and the Hostess Room are important features in this department, but special reports on these will follow.

Miss Theodora A. Luard has continued her admirable supervision and administration of our Social Service work, ably assisted by her companions in office, Miss Eva K. Scarborough and Miss Mary E. Wilkinson, and Mr. Herbert C. Bronsdon, the superintendent of our Employment Department.

We believe that THE UNION has made good in its Social Service, we appreciate the generous support which its friends have supplied, and so long as that support is continued we will endeavor to make a good accounting of it.

EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT

Herbert C. Bronsdon, Superintendent

"The Right Man in the Right Place"

Do you know that in the center of the city there is an Employment Bureau that has been placing the right man in the right place for fifty-four years?

This department has studied the problems of thousands of men who have applied for assistance in securing employment. After careful consideration these men have been placed in employment best suited to their qualifications. It was found that very few of the applicants had any conception of what they wished to do and apparently had no one to advise them. Recognizing this fact, the Employment Department developed a special advisory bureau for young men.

Through this agency an attempt is made to learn, in the first place, whether the applicant has any marked inclination or ambition for any specific line of commercial or industrial business; but this is seldom found to be the case. Next it becomes necessary to make some kind of psychological examination of the young man in order to learn what his qualifications are, so far as may be, and to decide in what line of work it is best for him to experiment.

One of the most difficult subjects to deal with is the boy who is “willing to do anything” but trained for nothing, and the fact that many young men of this class sometimes have to try several different employments before finding the one for which they are best fitted should not discourage either employer or employee.

It is, therefore, the aim of this department and of its advisory bureau to carefully consider both the requirements of the position and the qualifications of the applicant, and it is hoped that our service may be made of increasing value to all who may make use of it.

Our statistics for the season of 1922-23 are as follows:

	15-17 yrs.	18-20 yrs.	21-50 yrs.	50+ yrs.	Total
Positions offered	393	321	294	48	1,056
Applicants registered	182	285	336	125	928
Positions filled	96	206	189	22	513

SUMMARY

- 1. The Bureau was able to fill about 48% of the positions offered.
- 2. Of the applicants registered, 52% were placed.
- 3. It was found that a great many of the applicants applying for positions had very poor qualifications and many had no training whatever. This added greatly to the problem of placing applicants.
- 4. In addition to the applicants registered by the Bureau, many men whom we were not able to assist were referred to other employment agencies.

HOSTESS ROOM, 1922-23

The Hostess Room has added much to its activities in the past year.

Among all the features of THE UNION, this room, from its very nature, gives in one way the best exemplification of THE UNION’S effort for comradeship. Here, in short, is a bit of family life tucked away in the midst of the bustle of a great commercial city. We want the great UNION family to experience more and more of our home feeling.

The Dramatic Club presented “Peg o’ my Heart” in a most efficient manner and have given a number of little sketches characteristic of the Home Room Life of THE UNION.

The Hospital Flower Mission received many generous gifts of money and flowers, which enabled us to spread the real friendliness of THE UNION to the young men in the Chelsea Naval Hospital. Frequently we have been requested to send flowers to cheer and comfort a weary sufferer. Through Mrs. Hammond's kindness we were able to give Christmas bouquets to one hundred and fifty patients, and with each bouquet a pleasing token suggestive of the season.

Under the supervision of Miss Mabel I. Otis the British Apprentice Club was organized, giving the Hostess Room the opportunity of extending a cordial welcome to the boys from Great Britain. To the ordinary social hour much was added, such as dancing and interesting card contests between the British and American boys. Many happy and friendly relationships have been established with our friends from across the sea, and we are grateful for this privilege. The adjoining kitchen gave us many opportunities. Aside from our usual Thanksgiving and Christmas Dinners we served the Directors, Conference Committee, Salesmanship Class and Mendelssohn Singers many delightful suppers.

Much needed changes in the appointment of the Hostess Room was happily provided by the substantial purse collected by the Hostesses themselves. We all are truly indebted to them for this addition to the room's atmosphere of cheer and comfort.

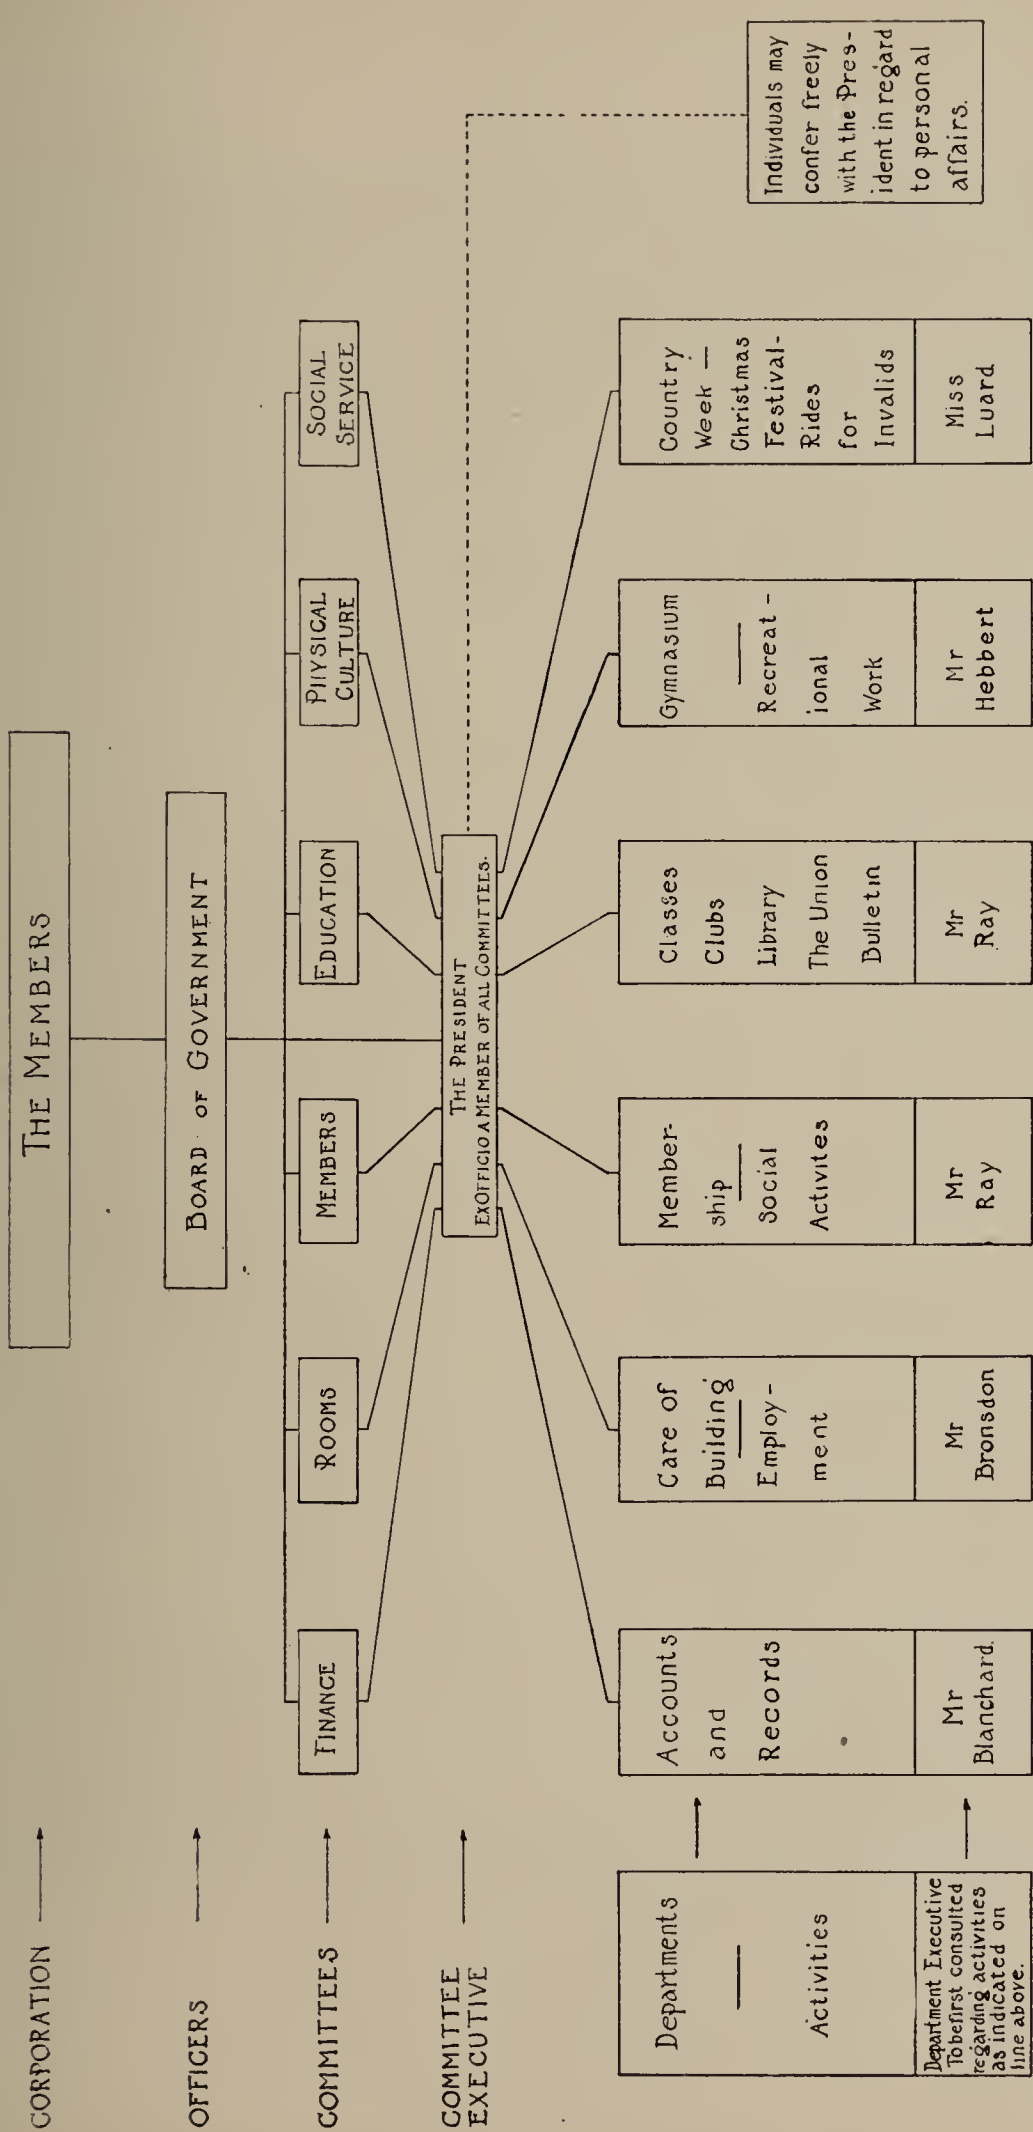

Many teas, dances and special parties have been given to those interested in THE UNION activities. The ladies with their individuality and friendliness give the Hostess Room the home sense so rarely found away from the real home fireside. Come and join with us to complete the circle of good cheer.

Committee: Mrs. Charles M. Hammond, Mrs. James W. Spring, Mrs. George B. Nauss, Mrs. E. W. Dearing, Mrs. William J. Hodges, Mrs. Karl Adams, Mrs. George Matless; Miss Mary F. Bartlett, Chairman. Permanent Hostess, Miss Gertrude Sharman. Supervisor, Miss Theodora A. Luard.

Aggregate attendance for year, 11,500.

Average monthly attendance, 958.

Average cups of tea per month, 580.

ARTICLE III. ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Members may be admitted in such manner and on such conditions as the Board of Government may prescribe.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a Board of twelve Directors, who shall be elected by ballot from members of the Society, and shall constitute the Board of Government. Four directors shall be elected each year, each to serve three years.

On or before February 15 of each year the President shall appoint a committee of three to make nominations for vacancies to be filled at the regular annual meeting. The committee shall report its nominations to the Secretary on or before March 1. Other nominations may be made by filing nomination papers, placed in the hands of the Secretary on or before April 1, signed by not less than 150 members entitled to vote at the previous annual meeting.

The Secretary shall post in a conspicuous place in the Union Rooms, immediately upon receipt by him, the list of names of the candidates presented by the nominating committee, and the names of other candidates properly presented, and shall provide suitable ballots containing the names of all candidates. Only those placed in nomination herein as provided shall be eligible for election.

Immediately after the annual meeting in each year the Board of Directors shall meet and organize, and shall choose from their number a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society, for the ensuing year. All the above officers so elected shall serve for the terms respectively named and until their respective successors are elected.

Vacancies occurring from any cause in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board of Government, and any director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and the election of his successor.

Vacancies occurring in the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled for the remainder of their terms by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Government shall have power to appoint, subject to their direction, such other officers and committees from among the members as they may deem expedient.

ARTICLE VI. DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life.

ARTICLE VII. MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the Society for the choice of officers shall be held on the second Wednesday in April. The Board of Directors may call other meetings of the Society from time to time; and they shall call such meetings whenever requested so to do by the written application of any seventeen members, stating the purposes for which such meeting is to be held; said meetings to be called in such manner as the said Board may deem expedient, having previously given reasonable notice thereof. Seventeen members shall constitute a quorum of the Society for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII. PERMANENT FUND.

The Board of Directors may transfer such of the funds of the Society as they may think best to a Permanent Fund, may appoint five trustees to control such fund, and shall at the time of such appointment determine the character of the trust by an instrument in writing. Vacancies occurring at any time hereafter in the number of said trustees shall be filled by the remaining members, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors for the time being.

ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS.

These articles may be added to, altered, or amended at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for the purpose, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, provided that such additions, alterations, or amendments shall have been proposed in writing at one meeting, at least, prior to that at which they are to be acted upon.
